After graduating from Missouri Baptist University, St. Louis, Jaclyn went on to pursue a career in communications doing everything from television and radio to small business marketing. Since August of 2005, she has been a professional speaker and had the opportunity to speak to nearly 80,000 high school and college students in Missouri alone through Monster.com's Making It Count Programs. She is also a Personality Expert, author, and speaker for corporate and women's groups.

Today she is here to offer encouragement and to help point us to the TRUTH.

Please give a warm welcome to Mrs. Jaclyn Rowe.
